Dear Ms. George:

I am submitting my resume as a job application for the position of Flight Attendant at Air Canada, as advertised in the Toronto Times. After reading your requirements and job description in detail, I found myself a suitable match for this job. Equipped with relational, enthusiastic and dynamic customer service and hospitality skills, I am confident in my ability to integrate effectively into your crew.

With a range of qualifications in the hospitality and tourism industry, my interest always inclined towards the air transport. To share experiments effectively inside a team and to support and serve the people of different cultures motivated me to select the occupation of flight attendant. My primary motto is to effectively serve the passengers and ensure their well-being, comfort and safety.

As a fresh and passionate candidate, I would welcome the chance to meet with you to talk about how my education, customer service experience and skill set would be beneficial to Air Canada. I will contact you by phone next week in order to follow-up and possibly to arrange an interview. If you need any additional information in the meantime, I can be reached at (000) 909-9992 or via email at [Email].

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

(Signature)

Andrew Gary
