Subject: management consulting cover letter

Dear Mr. George,

I, William Brooks am writing this letter to you as a support document for my job application letter for the position of a management consultant. I came to know about the vacancy for this challenging position through your newspaper advertisement published in London Times Newspaper. I believe that I have the right combination of experience, strategic thinking, problem solving abilities and qualifications to be suitable for this position.

I completed my bachelor's education in Business management from London International School and then went on to pursue MBA from Oxford University. I was employed as a marketing analyst at Jogger's Corporation where I worked for 1 year and was then given as job as a management executive at Fredrick Corporation for 2 years. Eventually, I started working for Peter's Limited as a management consultant and worked at this post of 3 years.

My rich experience and my ability to analyse current and future trends gives me a certain edge and I promise that if given a chance I won't let you regret your decision of hiring me. Please find my latest resume enclosed with this letter.

Waiting for your reply. Thanking you!

Sincerely

Andrew Gary
